

Solutions for Service Members and their Families

Our goal is to better serve our military and veteran
customers
in becoming successful
parents.

The Department of Child Support Services provides a Military & Veterans Liaison to meet your specific needs. A child support professional who served understands the needs of military personnel and veterans and is ready to provide assistance. Stop by and meet with the liaison about the child support process.

WE PROVIDE ASSISTANCE AT NO COST

Contact us if you have questions about the Military and Veterans Liaison. Our friendly liaison is dedicated to navigating the process with you. We are here to help and want to hear from you.

Did you recently experience a change in your military career, income, child custody or child care expenses?

If so, it may be time to request a review of your existing court order to determine if you qualify for a change in your child support. At your visit, we can discuss the modification process and provide information about other available resources including:

Opening a case

Child Support resources such as the Child Support Debt Reduction Program

License and passport release

Community partner resources

Changes to your court order
